Bodhi Day Service 成道会 (Jodo-e)

Sunday, December 11 10:00 a.m.

Commemorating the great awakening of Shakyamuni Buddha, the Bodhi Day service is perhaps the most important service of the year. We are fortunate to have Ms. Chenxing Han, a writer and chaplaincy-trained educator who lives in California, as our guest speaker. (Chenxing will also be offering a lecture and book signing on December 10. See page 3 for details.)

Music will be provided by the Daifukuji Baikako and Daifukuji Happy Strummers. Lunch will be prepared by the members of the Daifukuji Sangha Sisters group. The gift shop will be open. Canned and packaged food will be collected for the Hawai'i Island Food Basket.

Together, let us celebrate the Buddha's day of enlightenment. All are welcome.

We're having a New Year's party! Form on page 11. Deadline to sign up is December 15.

Bodhi Day Greetings from Reverend Jikō

Aloha Daifukuji members and friends,

Bodhi Day is quickly approaching, along with the eight mornings and evenings of zazen that lead up to the 8th of December, the day of Shakyamuni Buddha's great awakening 2,600 years ago. This is a special time of year for Zen Buddhists, a time when we sit daily in meditation together with our sangha friends. Outside, the stars twinkle; inside, the golden glow of the Buddha and bodhisattvas lead us to our cushions and chairs. The air of a December morning is cold and crisp. The silence is thick and rich, like a blanket which enfolds us. With confidence in the Buddha's teachings, we sit in stillness, listening to our breathing, supported by not only our human sangha, but by the sangha which is the whole universe made up of myriad beings. Our vow is to awaken — shujō to tomo ni 衆生と友に — to awaken together with all beings, to carry the Buddha in our hearts and to see the seed of awakening in every person.

After experiencing awakening beneath the Bodhi tree, the Buddha looked with eyes of compassion upon a suffering world and slowly rose from his seat, ready to begin a life of service to humanity. After awakening, he continued to wear a simple monk's robe and to carry a humble begging bowl, a practice which he continued for the rest of his life. His kind heart, his radiant glow, his wise teachings, and his peaceful presence inspired the people of his time and continue to inspire the people of our time. There are millions of people around the world who take refuge in this great teacher, in his teachings, and in the sangha. We at Daifukuji are among them. May we practice steadily and strongly, supporting one another with love, kindness, and aloha.

Dear sangha friends, I wish you a peaceful Bodhi Day and a safe and happy holiday season. I thank the Daifukuji Board, under the leadership of president Stephen Shōdō, for guiding our temple operations. And I thank all of you for your kindness, friendship, and kōkua throughout the year.

With warm aloha, in gasshō,

Jikō Nakadé

Report from the Board

by Steve Hoshin Mann, secretary

The Daifukuji Board of Directors met Thursday, November 3, via Zoom.

Barb Shoshin Bosz gave a preliminary report about the online auction, which earned nearly $20,000, with 200 bidders and 1,376 bids.

The painting of the roof is underway, and we've received half of the Historic Hawaii Foundation grant, the rest to be sent when the work is finished. And we'll probably be featured in Preservation magazine - they'll interview Teri Jigen Hollowell and Rev. Jiko.

We've started planning the January 29th New Year's party and the annual membership meeting.

We talked at some length about how Daifukuji might respond to the needs created by a possible Mauna Loa eruption. One idea is to shelter displaced sangha members in the social hall. We'll continue to study this.

Rohatsu Sesshin to Be Held December 1 - 8

Morning zazen (Dec. 1-8) 6:00 a.m. - 7:20 a.m.

Evening zazen (Dec.1-7) 6:00 p.m. - 7:00 p.m.

The Rohatsu Sesshin is a period of meditation that honors the Buddha Shakyamuni's enlightenment, which in Japanese Buddhism, is observed on the 8th of December as Bodhi Day. Rohatsu means "the 8th day of the 12th month." In Zen, a sesshin is a period of intensive meditation. At Daifukuji, we'll be sitting in the morning and again in the evening. One is welcome to come to any number of sessions.

During this period of meditation which is held annually from December 1- 8, zazen & morning service will be held each morning from 6:00 a.m. to 7:20 a.m. Donations to the Daifukuji Zazenkai will be accepted.

Zazen only will be held each evening from 6:00 - 7:00 p.m. from December 1 through December 7. Zafu (cushions) and chairs will be provided.

Please keep the following points in mind: plan on arriving at least 10 minutes early and be seated before the starting time. Should you arrive late, it is best to sit on a pew & join the group during kinhin (walking meditation). Please do not bring food, drinks, or electronic devices into the meditation hall. Please do not wear shorts or tank tops. Socks, head coverings, and lap blankets are okay.

The sesshin will end after morning service on December 8th and will be followed by breakfast. Questions? Please contact Rev. Jiko at (808) 322-3524 or rev.jiko@daifukuji.org.

Online Auction Mahalo

by Barb Shoshin Bosz, Auction co-chair

Auction 2022! Temple Kokua!

What a success! What fun! Big mahalo to all our donors, bidders, volunteers, and supporters! We have stories to tell about this year's auction, which seems like a whirlwind now. My crew this year included the following people: my co-chair Joyce St. Arnault, Merle Uyeda, Gail Ching-Lee & Sid Nakamoto, Jeri Hall, Nancy Osako, Cheryl Pennell, Wende Kumara, Susie Weaver, Cherokee Shaner, Sharlene Gee, Jiko Sensei, Amy Jikai, Midori Satoh, Betsy Morrigan, Emilia Parrish, Hannah Israel, Teri Hollowell, Jean Ikeda, Jessica Yamasawa, and Stephen Tanaka. These fantastic folks helped with the auction and rummage sale. Merle, Rev. Jiko, Amy, and Jes Yamasawa made our lunches. A big crew of all rock stars! An auction cannot be done without the help of dedicated volunteers. Deep bows to you all.

Donors, we cannot thank you enough for your generosity. Sangha members, supporters, and businesses all contributed a splendid variety of auction items, gift certificates, and monetary donations.

Here's some auction trivia. Item with the most bids – Hakata Dolls. Item with the highest bid – glass float with netting. Item we forgot to send home with winner – a Butsudana! (We delivered it.) We had 200 bidders sign up this year. That's 75 more than last year. We had 360 + items put up on our site. Our financial report will be in next month's newsletter — we are close to our $20,000 goal. Thank you to all. Banzai! Banzai! Banzai!

The new slate of directors will be introduced during the annual membership meeting that takes place just before the New Year's party at 11 a.m. on Sunday, January 29 at the social hall. At that time, the membership will vote on nominations. There is still room for a few more board members. Nominees must be dues-paying members of the Daifukuji Soto Mission in good standing. Year-end Giving

Looking for ways to make a contribution to Daifukuji? Please go to www.daifukuji.org and click on "Giving" or "Endowment." Mahalo!

Dear Friends of Hōlualoa,

I hope this letter finds you well. As we pull through this pandemic we would love to share what Pūlama has in the works to accomplish our vision for preserving Hōlualoa village as a culturally reflective wahi pana (a sense of legend or historical place) area.

We are asking for your financial support today for the 1925 monument restoration and historic signage project. The monument restoration is aiming for completion by 2023. We received a $10,000 Historic Hawaii Foundation Grant for the monument restoration work at the entrance of Kona Koyasan Daishiji Mission. Kona Koyasan Daishiji Mission is the project's primary sponsor with Pūlama Īa Kona as a partner. To fulfill this mission we are to fundraise for the rest of the estimated cost to ensure our vision is fulfilled.

Please consider supporting through a monetary donation and or volunteering to help us preserve our history here in our community. Pūlama Īa Kona Heritage Preservation Council is a 501(c)3 organization recognized by the IRS #99-0323867. Your charitable giving may qualify for a tax deduction.

July 1925 - Shikoku 88 Temples Pilgrimage Sign

Our total fundraising goal is $30,000. We have raised $14,000 so far with $16,000 to go. This fundraising goal will support the restoration itself, as well as create an informational sign to bring relevance and continuity to this project in relation to Hōlualoa village. To sustain our mission we will be hiring a project manager to oversee this project to fruition.

Why is this monument worth restoring?

On February 19th, 1942, Executive Order 9066 was issued by President Franklin D. Roosevelt. The United States viewed anyone of Japanese ancestry as an enemy and it became a crime to speak Japanese, be Japanese, to gather as a community and have any cultural practices. Over 30 monuments that used to be present along Mamalahoa Hwy from South to North Kona were destroyed by the U.S. Military with Executive Order 9066. For some reason, this last monument remains standing along Mamalahoa Hwy and many of our next generation do not know it exists nor the weight of its symbolism. It currently sits with corroded metal protruding out of the monument and about to break the historic concrete mix used back then even further. We are working on quotes and the restoration process now.

Mahalo for your time and consideration,
Antu Harvey, President & Maki Morinoue, Vice President

Your generous contributions help Pūlama complete these projects that benefit our community!
