Those who attend this service will have a chance to pour sweet, heavenly tea over a statue of the baby Buddha, housed in a gaily decorated hanamido or flower shrine.

The guest speaker will be Jill Teiho Wagner, who will be introducing the Rev. Konchok Rabje Rabgyal, a Tibetan monk who will be joining our Sangha and serving our temple as a volunteer throughout the year.

A spring egg hunt will be held in the temple yard following the service. Teen Sangha members, please meet at the temple on Saturday, April 7 at 9:00 a.m. to decorate the hanamido and prepare for Sunday's egg hunt. Children, please bring a basket or small bucket to the service on Sunday, April 8. Thank you to Avis & Brian Yamamoto for coordinating this spring egg hunt.

The Buddha Day lunch will be prepared by the Daifukuji Zazenkai, under the direction of chef John Replogle. Zazenkai members, please meet in the temple kitchen at 8:30 am on April 7 & 8 am on the 8th.

The lunchtime program will include the skit "The Kind Prince" by the Daifukuji Kids Sangha and a slideshow presentation of their 2006 Japan Trip by the Daifukuji Taiko youth group.

A Mountain of Rocks

Stonewall Report by Jan Bovard

Dear Members and Friends,

I would like to give you a short update on our stonewall project. On Friday, March 16 the wall on the north side of our driveway was unveiled in all its beauty. The workmanship is exquisite. The south-side wall will be completed on March 23. The men working have really put their heart and expertise into this wall and it shows. The pillars on either side of the driveway will be repaired and painted white after the wall is completed. With the wall pulled back, we will be much safer now as we enter and leave the temple. I wish to extend a huge thank you to all of you who have been so generous in your donations for the wall. I hope that when you see it finished, it will warm your heart to know that you had a special part in its creation.

Mahalo and gassho,
Jan Bovard

The Story of the Buddha's Birth

2,600 years ago in a small kingdom in northern India, Queen Maya had a wondrous dream in which a brilliant white light shone down upon her from the heavens. In this light there appeared a magnificent white elephant with six large tusks which drew closer and closer to her until it entered her body. The queen awoke, feeling happy and peaceful.

Told of this dream, the wise men said it was an excellent sign that an exceptional child would be born to the king and queen. The royal couple was delighted.

When the time of birth approached, the queen departed for the home of her parents, as was the custom in those days. The queen and her attendants stopped to rest in the beautiful garden of Lumbini, where the queen, feeling the pangs of childbirth, took hold of a branch of a flowering Asoka tree which showered it blossoms upon the gentle queen who gave birth to a son. Legend says that the baby prince took seven steps and, pointed one hand to heaven and the other to earth, a posture depicted in the image of the infant Buddha, which is placed inside the hanamido (flower shrine) on Buddha Day.

Waves of peace and happiness spread throughout the land and magnificent rainbows appeared in the sky. Sweet rain fell from the heavens and everywhere people and animals rejoiced.

Hanamatsuri, the festival of flowers, was first observed in Japan in the 14th year of the reign of Empress Suiko 1,300 years ago and to this day is observed on the 8th of April.

Dear members and friends, Buddha Day is one of the holiest days of the year for Buddhists. It is a day of great joy and celebration. Please take time out of your busy schedules to come to the temple on Sunday, April 8. Join us in honoring the birth of our great teacher, Shakyamuni Buddha, whose wise teachings lead us from the realms of selfishness, anger, fear, and greed to the peaceful realms of lovingkindness, compassion, understanding, and truth.

Not to commit any harm,
To do good,
To purify one's mind –
This is the teaching of the Buddha.

Namu Kie Butsu. We take refuge in the Buddha Namu Kie Ho. We take refuge in the Dharma Namu Kie So. We take refuge in the Sangha.

In loving gassho,
Rev. Jiko Nakade

In Memoriam

To the family of the late Tsutomu Yamaguchi, who passed away on March 10 at the age of 83, we extend our deepest sympathy. Tsutomu-san, who helped our temple in many ways over the years, will be greatly missed. His funeral service is scheduled for April 14 at 11 am, with visitation at 10 a.m. Namu Kie Butsu, Namu Kie Ho, Namu Kie So.

The fragrance of Fujiko Akamatsu's orchids fills our temple.

Flowers Needed for Altars

Each week cut flowers are needed for the temple altars. In order to avoid having to purchase them, we are asking you to please share the lovely flowers that grow in your home gardens. Anthuriums, protea, mums, and orchids are especially good. We avoid using flowers that have thorns or sticky sap. Please gently remove ants and other little creatures from the flowers. Your offerings of flowers to the Buddha will bring joy to many. Mahalo to Nancy Tanaka, Janet Kawamoto, Kimie Masuda, Yaeko Hakoda, Yoshiko Ikeda, & Fujiko Akamatsu for the pretty flowers which they've recently brought to the temple.

Looking Ahead: A Workshop on Communication

A workshop on "Inner disarmament: the Art of Pro-active Integral Communication" taught by Rev. Robert Joshin Althouse of the Zen Community of Oak Park will take place at Daifukuji from Aug. 24 to 26.
