Memorial Day Service & Baccalaureate Luncheon

Sunday, May 28, 2006 9:30 am

Speaker: Rev. Jiko Nakade

This service will be held in memory of the people who lost their lives as a result of the many wars that have been fought throughout human history. Let us gather to pray for world peace and to renew our personal vows to live in peace and harmony with others. This service will also include a blessing of the graduates whom we will be honoring at the baccalaureate luncheon.

If you are interested in knowing who this year's participating graduates are, please call Rev. Jiko at 322-3524.

Mahalo from Temple President Jan Bovard

Dear Members and Friends:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of you that so generously donated to our temple operations (ijihi) fund. THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU. Your ijahi donations are used to provide our minister's salary, pay for temple insurance coverage, utilities, office supplies, altar supplies, and for basic temple maintenance.

I am also so grateful for those of you that have come forward to help physically to do the clean ups and all the "little things" that must be taken care of.

"It takes a village to raise a child".....it takes every one of us to keep the "life" and "warmth" of our temple looking good and feeling inviting.

Not only the work, but being together as we work, gives us an opportunity to support each other in the Buddha's teaching. Many Mahalo's.

With aloha, Jan

Dear Members and Friends,

“Living With Compassion” was the theme of the 41st annual United Hawaii Soto-shu Women’s Association conference held recently on Oahu.

Let us reflect upon this theme and also practice the Buddhist precepts which are our guide to living with compassion.

The Sixteen Precepts

Taking refuge in the Buddha

Taking refuge in the Dharma

Taking refuge in the Sangha

Do not create evil

Practice good

Actualize compassion for all beings

Have respect for all life – do not kill

Have respect for the property of others – do not steal

Honor the body, honor relationships – do not misuse sexuality

Manifest truth – do not lie

Live with clarity – do not cloud the mind with harmful substances

Look & listen deeply – do not speak of the faults of others

Realize self and other as one – do not elevate yourself while blaming others

Give generously – do not spare the Dharma assets

Recognize the seeds of anger – do not let anger take control of you

Experience the Oneness of all life –do not defile the Three Treasures (Buddha, Dharma, & Sangha)

Namu Kie Butsu. Namu Kie Ho. Namu Kie So.

In gassho,

Rev. Jiko Nakade
